Project Report

INTRODUCTION

The compilation of this work is designed to help the genealogist further his search for a lost ancestor. With the addition of a genealogical record to the IOOF cemetery, my goal has been to aid the genealogist in expanding his family ties.

Many people will be unhappy at not finding a monument for an ancestor but their disappointment was shared by the compiler when not finding a marked grave. I make no claim as to being perfect, neither in recording, typography, nor otherwise, but every effort was made to be as correct as possible.

I recorded from the books at the cemetery and walked the graves to log each stone. I worked at the Perry County Court House for months trying to put this together and to add as much genealogy as possible. Many families gave the needed information to add genealogy to the people who are buried in the IOOF Cemetery. When many of these sources differed, I went back to the stone.

This cemetery was recorded between the Summer of 1989 and the Winter of 1992. It was an enormous but rewarding task and without the help of many people it could not have been done. First, I must thank two people who take care of this large cemetery, BILL COMMEAN and TODD DIXON, for their unending help. Also I must thank County Clerk DON HIRSCH who gave me the freedom to research. The girls at the Court House, MARY GERRISH and DENISE BATHON, for their hours of help and encouragement, and STACY and DENISE HIRSCH for their patience. I also must thank my husband, GENE DEGENHARDT, for setting up a computer system to compile, sort, and, print the IOOF Cemetery.

This book will be updated yearly and is a good time for all corrections and additions to be added. If you have corrections or want genealogy added to a burial, please write a letter stating your request.

HISTORY

Some of the first burials were Illinois' Civil War dead. These stones have long since disappeared. Thomas Briggs founded the cemetery in 1857. A 20 by 40 rod plot of ground was obtained from the Thomas Briggs family in 1863 for what is now IOOF cemetery. Another small plot was purchased in 1875 from Frances Federer and another in 1888 from Federer and George McKinney. The cemetery is on the northeast side of Du Quoin.

It is written in the minutes of the IOOF cemetery board about a Du Quoin farmer who approached the board in need of a grave space in which to bury his wife. The farmer had no money to buy the grave and bartered with the board, trading a smoked ham for a lot in the cemetery. If you look East at the far end of the cemetery you will find "POTTERS FIELD" where the farmer's wife is buried.

Many historic Du Quoin families are resting in IOOF cemetery. The headstones portray a history of the city. Pope, Wall, Ward, Kimmel, Forester, Naumer, Hayes, Onstott, Blakeslee, Browning, and Smith are just a few.

POTTERS FIELD

When JUDAS ISCARIOT betrayed JESUS CHRIST for thirty pieces of silver, the priests would not use the money for their temple, instead they bought a field to bury strangers.

It was a field of clay for making pottery and the field later became a free burial ground for strangers, criminals, and persons who were too poor to pay the expense of a funeral. Such a burial ground has been called POTTERS FIELD.

IOOF CEMETERY, as with many other cemeteries, has its own POTTERS FIELDS. Many of the records have been lost and it is only a guess as to the number of people buried here.

POTTERS FIELD is on the east side of section A & D.
